SYSTEMATIZE DOCUMENT CREATION

Legal teams are under intense pressure to create and deliver timely, accurate documents in an increasingly complex regulatory environment. Now you can transform the way your teams collaborate to build and publish these detailed and information-sensitive documents.

DocuBuilder, our unique automated publishing solution, enables you to create, edit, repurpose and publish time-sensitive materials with ease and efficiency. The key is breaking down content into small, reusable components, including sentences, paragraphs, data and tables. Expedite document creation and maximize accuracy by giving everyone on your team access to a single source of compliance-approved content.

UPDATE ONCE, PUBLISH ANYWHERE

DocuBuilder connects content components across documents and outputs. If you make a content edit to a single fund document, you can immediately identify other documents where this content is used, then choose to update several documents simultaneously. Our platform eliminates the tedious manual steps often necessary to keep content aligned across documents and outputs, such as:

- Print- and web-ready PDFs
- XML
- Formatted HTML
- XBRL/iXBRL
- EDGAR II
- And more
